

K-Love is broadcast on FM & it would a loss if LPFM stations could override it. This station allows a global Christian community to share stories & music. There is only 1 such local station and it doensn't have the global stories & impact. It is also very nice to listen to the same station as I travel, since K-Love is in many different cities. Please do not allow LPFM to displace this wonderful programming.